ITU welcomes EURAO as a Radiocommunications sector member

The International Telecommunication Union (ITU) admitted EURAO as a sector member in June, just a couple of days before HAM RADIO exhibition, although the official letter arrived later. That's why we were so happy after five years pursuing that goal.

Now Amateur radio is no longer represented by a single organization. The more the better. Sincere thanks to all members who had believed in this project. Read more

Friedrichshafen is still the best meeting place for European radio amateurs and EURAO was there to keep in touch with its members and friends, contact other entities and hold its General Assembly.

The Assembly was very fine and all issues were approved unanimously, including a common strategy to address the threat over the 144-146 MHz band. Several new projects were discussed and kicked off.

Next year we hope to see you there in June 26-28, 2020.

EANET Sprint Contest 2019: for international clubs and hams nuevo

On November 3, from 08:00 to 12:00 UTC, it will be held the next edition of the "sprint contest" version of the same name Award, devoted to the "Radio Clubs of the World".

In just four hours you can win original and funny prizes that you can share with your mate or friends: hotels, restaurants, wellness or adventures.

Moreover, you will have the opportunity to contact those radio clubs you still needed to complete the EANET Award.

Summer Hamradio Academy in Brasov

nuevo

Every year in July, this Romanian city hosts several scout camps in its surroundings. ARR volunteers teach youngsters about what amateur radio is and what it means. For most of them this is their first contact with hamradio and for sure it is an amazing experience.

In this edition, a group of 37 kids, boys and girls, passed the SWL tests and obtained a free Certificate accrediting their knowledge on this subject. Who knows if these young people will be the brave radio amateurs of the future? The new generations are coming up...
